

Oppressed—The large number of slaves who have been brought into the country from the South, and the large number of slaves who have been freed by the Emancipation Proclamation, have created a great demand for labor, and the price of labor has risen correspondingly. The slaves are now worth from $100 to $200 per month, and the cost of living has also increased.

TENNESSEE.

1862.

TENNESSEE.

186

